

City Church is a vibrant Evangelical Covenant congregation ministering in the Westport area of Kansas City, Missouri, in the historic First Evangelical Covenant building.

With exciting ministry to urban children and youth, City Church is unlike many churches in Kansas City. By way of its ethnic and socio-economic diversity, there is always a sense that something unique is going on at City Church. Visit their website at: <http://www.citychurchkc.org>

Life House Covenant Church, “The Flock That Rocks” is located in Longmont, Colorado. Their purpose is to be the dwelling place of God through whom He offers shelter to the unloved, freedom for the bound, and restoration to the broken, that the world may know that Jesus is Lord.

Church is a word in the New Testament that means “The gathered people of God.” It doesn’t mean a building or a religion. It means we are committed to being a community of people who love God and each other. Read about this active and busy “gathered people of God” at: <http://www.lifedepot.org>

Organized in 1877, the Evangelical Covenant Church of Lanyon, Iowa, continues to be an active and thriving town and country church of the Midwest Conference. Arriving in September 2008, Pastor Mark Murchison says, “I am excited about seeing the new things God will do in and through the church here. To quote the movie ‘The Blues Brothers,’ I feel like I’m on a mission from God. I believe that rural churches and churches in small towns often overlook their strengths, we can get caught up in comparing ourselves to mega churches, big city churches and even other churches in neighboring areas. God did not call His church to imitate. God called us to create. I’m here to assist the church to become the best it can be – strengths and weaknesses all considered.” Check out our website: <http://www.lanyoncovenant.org>

At The Journey in Wichita, Kansas, you don’t have to dress up, put on a face or pretend to be someone you aren’t. We don’t care about your political party or who you vote for in the elections. Our desire is to grow together toward the goal of becoming authentic in Christ. You see, we believe church should be a place of grace where our loving God meets seeking people who are far from perfect. That means that anyone is welcome, no matter where you are on your spiritual journey. Deerbrook Covenant in Lee’s Summit, Missouri, is a place where everyone has a sense that God is alive and relevant in the lives of His people. Originating in 1996, this small group of people who gathered together to form an ECC church today average’s a Sunday attendance of approximately 400 people representing a broad cross section of people of differing backgrounds, ages and race. Our slogan, “Hearts on Fire...Hands at Work: Committed to Grow and Serve” reflects our mission. Check us out! <http://www.deerbrookonline.net>

Bethlehem Covenant Church in Waverly, Nebraska, is a country church that enjoys having God guide us in helping out our neighbors, close and afar. We invite you to visit our website for inspiration and please, stop by to see our church for fellowship and worship. With the assistance of the Holy Spirit, we continuously seek to spread the gospel message of Jesus Christ.

Our worship service would be considered blended but leaning more toward traditional. In our worship singing we are choir lead and organ/piano accompanied. We sing new praise and worship songs and older traditional hymns. Visit our website at: www.bccfaith.org and learn more about us.

Centennial Covenant in Littleton, Colorado, is turning 25! – We are throwing a 9-week long party (January 10 – March 7, 2010) with a focus of remembering God's faithfulness in our past to look forward to a future of drawing all the closer to Him. During these 9 weeks we will take an in depth look at our Priority Callings, crafted by our Discernment Team from January 2006 – June 2009. Happy Birthday Centennial! If you visit First Covenant Church in Sioux City, Iowa, you will notice a lot of lighthouses around. This is the symbol of our vision as we seek to shine the light of Jesus into the community around us.

Vision Statement: Our mission is to invite people to move from darkness into God's light so we can live together as children of light.

Vision Verse: "For you were once darkness, but now you are light in the Lord. Live as children of light." Ephesians 5:8

Hope Covenant Church in El Dorado, Kansas, is a new, contemporary Covenant church where you will meet lots of young families with children as well as lots of "baby boomers" enjoying the challenges of mid-life! Here you will enjoy fellowship, restoring the mind, and building relationships through their ministries to kids, youth and adults. Members of this congregation come from many places and church traditions but they share a common desire to keep the "main thing" the main thing...to love God with all their heart, soul, strength and mind, and to love their neighbors as themselves.

In 2003, Pastor Brian Johnson and his wife, Cheryl, began assembling a core group of people to begin a church plant in this community of 14,000 located 25 miles northeast of Wichita. As of 2009, they have acquired a 7-acre site for their future home and anticipate breaking ground in the near future. Check us out!

Known as "a comfortably energetic, evangelical church," Heartland Covenant Church of Springfield, Missouri, invites you to come experience the difference for yourself. The Heartland congregation seeks to develop, enhance and encourage devotion to God. Their music is energetic, God-focused and specific for each Sunday's worship theme. Their mission is "Taking people at whatever heart-state they are in and moving them into being whole-hearted followers of Jesus Christ," and their purpose is to love God, love people, and make disciples through a commitment to Christ, growth, community, and stewardship. Visit their website: heartlandcovenant.com

Monty Newton -- Senior Pastor

Urban Heights Evangelical Covenant Church in Urbandale, Iowa, came to life in 1971 to be an outpost for Christ's mission in the western suburbs of Des Moines. When the church began, it literally sat on the edge of Urbandale with the city to it's east and open fields to it's west.

The Urban Heights story is a story of God's Faithfulness. Being built upon the strong foundations of prayer, teaching from God's Word, and caring - God has directly impacted and changed the lives of many through the people of this church.

As with our conception over 35 years ago, we look to build upon what God has done among us, as well as with an eye toward new opportunities and ministries that may take us into uncharted land in order to meet the growing needs of the people of our community. We invite you to step into the future with us, as we continue to faithfully look to join God in the work He is doing. Check out our website: www.desmoineschurch.org

The first visit to a new church is not easy. We hope our website www.cerescocovenant.org answers questions you might have about our church before you visit. Our goal as a congregation is to grow in faith and share that faith with people like you. We have been rooted in the community for 100 years and as we move forward, we also move outward to serve others. When you come to visit, it is our hope and prayer that you will experience the joy of Jesus Christ and come to know the grace and love of God more and more. Join us for Sunday worship at 9:30 a.m. with Christian Formation for all ages at 10:45 a.m.
